Smithville, TX

Strategic Community Resiliency and Economic Development Plan

Description of Project: This Plan was funded through the CDBG, Texas Department of Agriculture, Rural Affairs Office. Smithville had previously completed several comprehensive and economic plans, this plan was to review the previous plans, update them and selectively prioritize the efforts into meaningful growth with strategic goals, objectives, action strategies and assignment of responsibility to assure implementation within a 1 to 5 year framework.

Mundo's Role: As the planning consultant we assisted the City Staff and Chamber of Commerce Executive Director in an active public participation/outreach, review of past plans, economic profile, housing market analysis and plan, thoroughfare corridor analysis/plans and the downtown retail market analysis and plan. Goals were specific to the desired achievements with a detailed implementation guide.:
